FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7th 1862

THE GUARDIA MONTE BUTCHERY.

The authorities seem still asleep: the local papers wink at the murder of two foreigners. Excepting the brief account in the "Nacion Argentina", not the slightest mention has been made of the most cold-blooded massacre which has disgraced Buenos Aires, during many years. We hear nothing of Gov. Saavedra's indignation, we see no measures to punish the guilty; perhaps even the Juez de Paz of Guardia Monte assists at balls, plays "sortija" or billiards, and eats "carne con cuero" with quite as good a relish as if the drunken gaucho had only slain two mad dogs; for alas! an Irishman's life is not very dear to camp officials. How long will this last? is a question often put, and readily answered. One or two more cases like that of Gilligan and Davy will awaken our countrymen to the wretched fact that they may expect as much protection from the alcaldes, tenientes et hoc genus omne, as Nana Sahib vouchsafed to the prisoners of Cawnpore.

It is useless to complain of the Government, for they seem as powerless to repress assassination within 30 leagues of the city, as they are to protect the San Juan diligence from the Indians. Not long ago Mayor Vila was murdered in this same district, and if he had been an Irishman the fact would have been passed over unheeded; but it suited the Policy or principles of the Tribuna, Nacional and Revista to make a noise about the matter, and one of the assassins was shot in expiation. It may be said that Gilligan or Davy was a more useful citizen than Vila, but unhappily soldiers are at a premium, and shepherds below par, in the province of Buenos Aires. Hence Vila was avenged; but the ravens may pluck out the hearts of our murdered countrymen ere it excites the notice of our philanthropic colleagues.

There is however an avenging Deity, and murder cries to Heaven for vengeance. We will not answer for the issue, if Lynch law become necessary, as many believe, in the camp, and the rope once in use some others may swing from it than the actual assassins. It therefore behoves Government to save us from the disgraceful though necessary scenes of San Francisco in 1849 under the Committee of Public safety.

Within a brief period we can count up a dozen Irishmen murdered in the camp, but even the oldest inhabitant cannot cite a case of a native shot for having assassinated one of our countrymen. This accumulation of unavenged blood would, if gathered together, permit one of our camp judges to swim in the gory liquid; and with shame we confess there are some officials whose conduct would seem to say, that the bath would not be disagreeable. One judge was heard to boast "that he would bury all the foreigners of his partido, up to the chin, in the plaza, and feed them with a fork." Another Christian justice exclaimed, with patriotic fervour, "Would to God that all these gringos broke each other's heads!" But these facts and this antipathy are so well known that we tire our readers.

President Mitre and Governor Saavedra probably value foreigners more than gauchos, yet we are such victims of routine, that they pay not the least attention to anything coming from unofficial quarters. As dead men tell no tales, and the minor functionaries cloak up these trifles, our colleagues expect that the Guardia Monte murder will be forgotten. But there is an outburst of horror, and a demand for vengeance, which must have a victim. Our 20,000 Irish farmers say, each—"It will be my turn next!" And already some of our leading merchants have put down their names for a subscription, which they would gladly present to our charitable institutions, if the assassin be taken and executed.

The honor of the country is at stake: an inquiry must be made. We understand that the Chief of Police has nothing to do with either Juez de Paz or alcaldes, and, as the matter now stands, nobody knows whose business it is to prevent noon-day murders in the camp. It is said the assassin remained three days quietly at his house, and he may be there yet. These things happened in Syria and Mexico, but we are assured those much abused autocrats, Lopez and Urquiza, would scour their territories to catch, not only the gaucho, but his judicial brethren.

While writing the above, we learned that Gov. Saavedra declares his intention to reform the whole system of camp justice; but we demand his special intervention in this barbarous murder, of which we shall not lose sight until the criminal and his accomplices are shot.

Delenda est Carthago!

EDITOR'S TABLE.

President Berro has made a clean sweep of it in Montevideo and has sent all his Ministers about their business, alleging that he can get along better without them. Montevideo is in a fever; the hot weather, ministerial crisis, Colonia hubbub, and Mercedes expedition, are the monopolizing topics of our Eastern friends.

The Foreign races promise to come off rather well this time: Minuti and Foster will be on the ground, with their animals, and it is currently reported about town that the Railroad will run for the occasion. We are afraid this is too good to be true.

Miss Altieri's benefit comes off to-night, at the Victoria. She appears as "Lucia," in Donizetti's opera of the Bride of Lammermoor. She will also sing "Kate Kearney." Such a bill of fare will be sure to draw a crowded house.

The San Juan Mining Company seems to have bright prospects. We hear that a most influential meeting was held the other night, and that some of the principal city men have taken the matter in hand, and determined to have the mines properly worked. Mr Rickard is about to proceed to Europe for machinery, and will return in a few months.

Our Hand-book is progressing rapidly; we are receiving information from all quarters, advertizers will please send in their advertizements without delay; after next week they will give us additional trouble and consequently will cost extra.

Altieri's Benefit.

To-night our gifted countrywoman will take her benefit. She will appear in Lucia di Lammermoor, and has promised to sing [between the acts], the charming Irish song, Kate Kearney. We have no doubt that she will have a crowded house.

Foreign Races.

The greatest novelty of the day is the wonderful match which is to come off at the Foreign Races, on Monday next, between Minuti, Baron Knight of Malta, on Cœur de Lyon, and Dr Forster on Diplomatico. Large wagers have already been booked for this race. The corps diplomatique have been invited to attend. "Diplomatic" is the favorite.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

ITALY.

Turin, Friday September 19.

The "Dirito" states that its impression of yesterday was seized by order of the government. The same paper published a letter from Dr. Ropari, Gen. Garibaldi's medical attendant, respecting the visit paid to the wounded General by Dr. Patridge. The opinion of the English physician was of a very reassuring character.

The arrival of prince Napoleon and the Princess Clothilde at Turin is announced for the 24th inst. The marriage day of the Princess Maria is not yet fixed, but will, it is expected, take place on the 24th or 27th. The "Official Gazette" of to day published the regulations respecting the sale of state domains. It also announces that the Neapolitan Railway, started by sig. Bishobdi, has demanded the act of its constitution from the government. The "Discussione" of to-day says that the state of siege will continue some time longer at Naples, and that it will be abolished in Sicily after the officials, whose loyalty or integrity is suspected, are removed from the public administration. The Italian parliament will be closed and not dissolved.

PORTUGAL.

Lisbon, Tuesday, Sept. 16.

The 6th regiment mutinied at Braga, province of Minho, and fired on its officers. Major Vasconcelas was killed. Two regiments were sent to-day to Baga from Lisbon. Tranquillity is restored at Braga, and the ringleaders of the mutiny fled.

BELGIUM.

Brussels, Friday, September 18.

The count de Paris and the Duke de Chartres arrived here on Wednesday evening, after having travelled through part of Belgium. They were received at the Palace, and paid a visit on Thursday to the King at Lacken, where a dejeuner was prepared. They left here yesterday.

AUSTRIA AND ITALY.—ARMY REDUCTION.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says preparations are being made for a great reduction in the Austro-Italian army. The artillery will be placed on a peace footing. Each of the companies belonging to the first two battalions will be mere skeletons. The cavalry will also be greatly reduced. A report reached the Paris Bourse yesterday from Turin of an intended reduction of 40,000 men in the army of the Italian kingdom. The Paris correspondent of the Herald terms this a foolish report.

An eminent French surgeon has been despatch from Paris on a professional visit to Garibaldi.

The Independence represents Francis II, King of Naples, as comforting his adherents by an announcement that he would soon be at Naples, when he promised to observe the constitution of 1848.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE COLLEEN BAWN—It may be interesting to the public to know that the name of the dramatized "Colleen Bawn" was Ellen Hanly. She was murdered, by drowning, near Foynes, either on the 14th or 15th July, 1819. The chief conspirator of the brutal deed, highly connected in this county and city, was executed at Gallows Green on the 16th March, 1820, and Sullivan, (dramatically represented as "Danny Mann," the summer of last year. The body of the "Colleen" drifted into Money Point, and was entered in Burrane churchyard, where Robert W. D. Reeves, Esq., upon whose property the burial ground is situated, has erected a tombstone upon which is inscribed the simple epitaph,—"The Colleen Bawn,"—Limerick Cronicle.

AN EPIGRAM ON A COIN.—A great rarity in the shape of coins has lately been sold at Paris—namely a silver one struck off at Breslau, in 1751. Among the persons employed at the time in the mint was an Austrian who out of hatred to Frederick II of Prussia, who had taken possession of Silesia by right of conquest, conceived the idea of revenging himself on that monarch in the following manner:—the motto on the coin „Ein reichs thaler„ (a crown of the kingom) he divided in such a manner as to make it read „Ein reich stahl er" (he stole a kingdom)! The King ordered these insulting coins to be all melted down, but some few of them still exist.

Commercial News.

New York, September 1 '62.

Gentlemen:

During the month of September, the Wool Market was more active even than in August, for all descriptions, with a steady advance in rates.

The advance in the rates for gold and exchange, has materially influenced the advance in wool; and high prices will probably continue for a long time, and have their effect upon imports, to a considerable extent.

The new clip mostly passed out of first-hands early in the month, at higher rates than was expected, and second hand lot have been freely taken at an average of fifty cents.

The amount received has been very little more than enough to supply the demand. Present holders do not seem anxious to sell, feeling confident that in a short time they will realize their prices, if now extreme.

Pulled—The stock of old pulled wool, is nearly closed out, and would have been entirely so, but for the extravagant prices asked for what little remains. Lambs wool is selling as fast as made, and no accumulation of clothing.

Foreign Fine Wools—say Cape, Mestizo, and Australian, have been sold largely. The stock is now light, and prices are firm at our quotations. Sales of these, as well as most other wools have been made principally for cash.

Medium Wools, met with an increased demand, and quick sale at the advanced prices, and the stock has been considerably reduced.

Low Wools, have nearly all gone into consumption. The market is almost bare of worsted wool, and prices obtained have been extreme. There is very little in the market of the shorter descriptions for filling.

The auction sales at Liverpool commenced on the 18th ulto., and on the first day the prices of East India wools were the same as those of last April with the exception of Common Yellow, and Gray, which has advanced 1/2d, per lb.

The accounts from the markets on the Continent of Europe, give no change of any importance, and prices are about the same, with the exception of Common and Medium wools, which have improved slightly.

The imports of wool into New York for the first six months of 1862 were—

	37,153 bales—16,496,130 lbs
Into Boston	9,373,829 "
Into New York for the month ending 20th August	4,288 bales—2,426,921 "

According to Section 14 of the new Tariff Bill, wools, the growth of Countries beyond the Cape of Good Hope, imported from places west of same, will have to pay an additional duty of ten per cent.

Respectfully,

TELLKAMPF & KITCHING,

Wool Brokers.

LOCAL EVENTS.

ECLIPSE.—One of the Montevideo papers states that a Brazilian merchant of that city had taken French leave of his friends without balancing his books.

ARTIGAS AND RONDEAU—The ashes of these two generals of the Oriental Republic were transferred to the Rotunda of the public cemetery of that city.

SAN JUAN SCHOOLS—Messrs. Maun and Co. have subscribed ten ounces to his fund.

LONDON AND R. P. BANK—The sum already subscribed for in England to this company amounts already to £ 350,000 sterling.

A REMARKABLE PIT has been discovered in the old market place and several people have thrown in stones with the object of ascertaining its depth but without any result. Some people pretend that it is a subterranean conduit to San Nicolas Church, which we think exceedingly unlikely, especially when we remember the famous hoax of the Colon theatre subterranean passage to the Retiro.

SPLENDID BAND—No less than ten local events in the Rio Janeiro papers mention the first-rate band of music of the Spanish squadron, and its commander has been asked to let it play on shore. If he accedes to that request it is probable he will do the same in Buenos Aires and we may then have an opportunity of judging for ourselves.

The Screw Steam ship "Resolution" bearing the flag of admiral Pinzon and "Nuestra Señora del Triunfo" Commander Croquer, had already arrived at Montevideo from Rio Janeiro.

THE SAINTONGE—will leave Montevideo, the 17th inst for Rio Janeiro, with the customary mails.

If she leaves this city as usual on the 14th inst there will be in all probability a supplementary mail two days later.

Colonel Susini of the Buenos Aires squadron has just arrived from Italy.

MONTEVIDEO—Several workmen had arrived from England, who were expected to take charge of the gas works in that city.

The new works are considerably advanced and it is expected that gas lighting will be rendered extensive to the whole town by January next.

KEROSENE OIL—has not only invaded the River Plate and Parana, but gone on towards the Andes

By the San Juan papers we see it is offered on sale to the public in that remote locality

CHILIAN MAILS—Query; why does the Buenos Ayres Post-Office charge postage on prepaid letters from Chile, expressly against an article of the treaty between this country and Chile.

10000 a 14, hides same price with 2,000 ounces advance.

10 a 15,000 hides same price.

6 a 9,000 hides and 350 pipes tallow same price, and all the remainder of the produce according to the monthly prices current

All these contracts made by a German house

Another from two saladeros in Entre Rios and Banda Oriental for 8.000 hides and corresponding proportion of tallow, same prices, except for cows which are at 50 rls, instead of 52

THE BUFFES.

On Wednesday the benifit of Mr, D'Hote took place as announced with one of the best houses ever seen in Colon, we estimate the number of people present at about 2,000.

Mr, D'Hote, the principal actor pleased us ever all his audience, most especially in his two chansonettes "Papa Bourdon" and "Le Docteur Isambart;" in the latter especially the comic proficiency of the actor is admirable.

The other performances came off very well; we think the acting of madame Pauline is improving, not so with Mr. Noury who always leaves us under the impress n that he would be better as the harlequin of a low circus. He has got a propensity to overdo his parts and is thus led away to the most absurd exaggerations.

However the tout ensemble of the performance was very good, and we hope Messrs. D'Hote and Pauline will continue giving us their performance with as happy a result as heretofore.

Very important
To estancieros, gardeners and farmers.

The undersigned mechanical engineers have the honor to inform the public, that they have obtained a patent from Government, for iron posts, called "Economicos", for enclosing fields, sheep pens, rodeos &c. stronger and cheaper than any hitherto in use.

The same patentees have a diploma for moveable "corrals" which are highly valuable for the ease with which they can be removed and set up. This new system is much approved of by those estancieros who have tried it, as it is found exceedingly cheap and firm, and a corral of 50 yards by 50 can be constructed by one man in two hours.

The advertisers also design plans and industrial drawings for machinery of all kinds. For further particulars apply to Music and Singing Master.

The undersigned begs to offer his services to the public as a music master. Educated and trained by some of the best European masters, he will be ready to give instruction to his pupils in the delightful art of singing in a very short period. The system he adopts is that of the celebrated Garcia, the master of Malibran and La Lablache, under whom he has studied for more than five years and therefore he has had good opportunity to conduct himself of the excellence of his system. He will also give lessons on the piano-forte and the theory of music. Persons desirous of taking lessons will please apply at his residence No 1 Calle Reconquista.

BARGAINS from AUCTIONS,

Bramantes, lienzos, calicoes, handkerchiefs, cloths and clothing of all kinds, obtained at the cash auctions, at 40 per cent less than the regular prices, and sold at the same rates; also fancy articles, perfumeries, kid gloves, straw and felt hats, soaps, ribbons, gum combs and hair pins, and in fact all articles composing a General Store or Bazaar, sold retail. Store open until 10 at night. Country stores supplied at wholesale: to such we sell, lienzos, warranted cotton handkerchiefs and other articles, at even a discount on our own retail prices; and to give an adequate idea of our prices, it is only necessary to say that, even in the present state of the market, we sell good strong lienzo at 3 dollars the yard, and good Bramante—viz, Barbour Barclay's—No 3, at 60 dollars the piece of 20 English yards. Always on hand, Gifford's No 1 calico and others of first class, straw hats, with broad brims, and silk lined, 18 dollars, and new goods of all sorts coming in so constantly as to render it impossible to advertise them in detail. We merely invite attention to our general assortment, notifying the public that we do not confine ourselves to any class of goods especially, but buy up whatever can be found at the cash auctions, provided the article be first class, never buying or selling damaged goods of any sort. Highly Important to Consumers of Kerosene Oil.

It having come to the knowledge of the undersigned, that servants who had been sent to the Gran Emporio de Luz del Plata, No 69 calle Florida, for Oil, have been enticed to go elsewhere and purchase, and as such deception is calculated not only to impair the reputation of this establishment, but also to produce consequences of the most serious nature, the public are especially cautioned against this species of imposition. None but genuine Kerosine Oil—entirely free from odour or inflammability—has ever been, or will be, sold in this establishment.
